To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for allowing U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliaries to use your property while carrying out their mission of teaching and promoting safe boating practices to the American recreational boating public.

U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliaries deliver their valuable public services voluntarily and without pay as they conduct their activities on behalf of the U.S. Coast Guard. In this regard, the U.S. Coast Guard, in the manner and to the extent provided by the Federal Torts Claims Act, may be liable for claims for damage or loss of property, personal injury, or death caused by acts or omissions of a Coast Guard Auxiliary properly assigned to duty as an agent of the U.S. Government.

Again, thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Commander, U.S. Coast Guard
Director of Auxiliary, First Southern Region
